

GREAT FATHER'S DAY GIFT!

Dads want to know...
"How can I help my child succeed?"

3 part
fall series

It's time to acknowledge dads & the roles they play in their family system. Are you a problem solver, but out of solutions with how to help your child? Are you & your spouse struggling to parent your child's behavior?

DADS' DISCUSSION GROUP

Starting October 10, 7-8pm

$135, paid in full at time of registration

TOPICS

Oct 10 Communication strategies for dads. Learn different techniques a dad can use to support their child and partner. We'll discuss when a child can benefit from behavioral interventions, occupational, speech, or educational therapy.

Oct 24 Debunking myths about your child's challenges. Turning your anxieties about your child's future into long term goals with positive outcomes. Group Q&A.

Nov 14 Concerned about school placement and what environments will work best for your child? We will address those concerns and discuss how to find a program that fits your goals as well as your child's.

FOR DETAILS CALL 310.899.9597 or visit:

www.childsuccesscenter.com/dads-discussion-group

Presenters: Patty Ramsey, M.A., LMFT MFC & Melissa Idelson, OTR/L

Patty has been working with children and families in both school and home settings for the past 10 years. Along with providing Behavioral Therapy to children, Patty also provides marriage and family therapy. Melissa is the Director of Child Success Center and has over 25 years of experience assessing and treating children. Together Melissa and Patty are excited to help dads on their journey to supporting their families through challenging child rearing years.

If you can't make the fall series stay tuned for the winter series.

